

InCore Bank appoints Dr. Daniel Diemers as new member of the Board of Directors

Zurich/Schlieren, 22.09.2020 – The Board of Directors of InCore Bank appoints Dr. Daniel Diemers as a new member. With Daniel Diemers, InCore Bank is gaining a proven strategy expert in banking and digital assets to join the board.

Daniel Diemers has been working as a strategy consultant for over 20 years and supports financial companies on their way into the digital business world. As an independent strategy consultant in the financial services sector, he is active in Europe and the Middle East and supports companies in developing and implementing successful growth and innovation strategies. Before that, he was a partner at the international management consultancy PwC Strategy& (formerly Booz & Company) in Dubai and Zurich. Diemers graduated in economics and social sciences at the University of St. Gallen (HSG) and at the Rotterdam School of Management (RSM) and received his doctorate on the topic of Virtual Knowledge Communities. In addition, he has written several books, studies and articles.

«We are delighted that with Daniel Diemers we have an expert in digital services who is well established as a «Digital Native» and an equally experienced advisor in the financial sector by our side,» said Peter R. Haist, Chairman of the Board of Directors of InCore Bank. Diemers has already advised InCore Bank in strategic projects for the introduction of new digital services in the past months.

«The appointment of Daniel Diemers to the Board of Directors of InCore Bank emphasizes our ambitions to position InCore Bank as the first traditional Swiss business-to-business bank in the new digital asset class, enabling our clients to safely enter the world of digital assets,» said CEO Mark Dambacher.

The Board of Directors of InCore Bank is now comprised as follows: Peter R. Haist, Chairman, Hans G. Syz, Vice Chairman, Sonja Stirnimann, Amedeo C. Vaccani, Prof. Dr. Dr. Christian Wunderlin, Dr. Daniel Diemers.

About InCore Bank

InCore Bank is a one-stop business-to-business transaction bank founded in 2007, providing banks, securities dealers and fintech companies first-class transaction banking and outsourcing services. As a Swiss corporation with a banking and securities dealer license, InCore Bank offers a comprehensive and modular range of services covering transaction banking for traditional and digital assets, business process outsourcing and other services. This offering enables other market participants to reduce complexity and focus on their core business.

www.incorebank.ch

Media contact

Laragh Welti
Head of Marketing
laragh.welti@incorebank.ch
+41 44 403 93 19